THREE HUNDRED SUCCUMB TO HEAT

ANXIETY INCREASES.

Fear That Death Will Thin Ranks of Veterans if Present Oppressive Conditions Continue

Gettysburg, July 2.—Death will sweep the Union and Confederate reunion, unless there is an early and decided drop in the temperature or unless this section is deluged with rain. The suffering at the start of this—Miliary Day—was intense.

Scarcely a camp was unscathed, Torrid heat and a heavy percentage of humidity, coupled with the change in their usual habits of eating and drinking, caused scores of the old soldiers to collapse. The hospital corps is already overworked, with three full days of the reunion still to come.

For two days there has been no breeze. The brown army tents are veritable ovens. Many of the veterans were completely worn out by the long, hard trip to get here.

The forces of the North and the South are being specically honored today. In the big ten, where all of the formal functions are held, the veterans assemble this afternoon, to listen to praise of the heroism shown he opposing armies. Eulogies of North are to be sounded by Major al John P. Brooke, of Pennsyl- , while those of the South will livered by Sergt. John C. Scar- gh, of South Carolina. And, as nax to the two effors come the g of the martyred Lincoln's sburg address by Barry Bulk- f Washington.

re was a decided check to the wild enthusiasm which has marked the proceedings up to today. Yesterday's terrible heat, which lasted well into the night, had taken heavy toll of the reserve strength of the old warriors. They did not respond as quickly to the bugle this morning, many preferring to go without their breakfasts to leaving the shelter of their tents and the hay piled cots on which they were comfortably resting.

There were fifty-three prostrations yesterday, which necessitated the removal of the victims to the general hospital and there were four or five times that number who received treatment and were taken to their tents to recover. The remarkable thing so far has been the small number of deaths. Only five have been reported to date and its is pointed out that this is far below the average.

With more than 50,000 men in camp, all over sixty-eight years of age the death rate, according to the law of averages, should be much higher. However, the surgeons in charge fear that, as the camp draws to a close, these figures will be increased.

Pastor Guarded by Flock.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., July 2—The Rev. Jonas Shupshinks, pastor of the Holy Trinity Lutheran Catholic Church, of this city, has a guard of parishoners and city police about his home at night, because he fears an attack from the Black Hand. He has received several threatening letters signed, "The American Black Hand Society," in which he has been told that he must pay $1,500 as tribute money, "or die like a dog."

Four threatening letters have been received by the pastor. Some bore pictures of blood besmeared daggers and others the Mafia sign of five fingers clutching a dagger.

He has tried to trap the gang with the help of the police, but his efforts have failed and the letters continue to come.

The divorce court of London recognized the New York law as valid, in annulling the marriage contracted in New York, of Gwendolene Maud Flood to Harold Boozey, formerly divorced.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Henri Rochefort, for long series of years one of the most prominent figures in French political life, died yesterday at Aix les Bains, France, from a complication of maladies at the age of 83 years.

Four girls, sisters, were drowned at Elkhart, Ind., yesterday when the older girls sprang into St. Joseph's river in a vain attempt to save a younger sister. Grace Schwyn, 7 years old, fell into the river while picking cherries from a limb which overhung the water. The other girls, Alice; 16, Clara 13, and Ida, 11, attempted to save her and themselves were drowned.

Five persons were burned to death and 20 or more injured in a fire which destroyed an immigrant hotel at 66 Greenwich street, in the downtown section of New York late Monday night. They were all aliens who had been booked to sail from New York yesterday for their homes in Europe. There were nearly 75 lodgers in the house.

The dead body of Mrs. Agnes Siejack, 18 years old, a bride of four months was found in the bedchamber of her home, 1312 Cambridge street, Baltimore, yesterday morning. Stephen Siejack, her husband, with whom she is said to have quarreled yesterday morning and Monday night, was arrested shortly after discovery of the body. Beside the body when it was found by a boy sent to the house by Siejack was a can of insect poison, partly empty, but bearing on its label a statement that it was not injurious to human beings. A superficial examination of the body by the coroner at first led to belief that the young woman had committed suicide, but a closer scrutiny of the body revealed abrasions of the throat and breast.

State Senator Ben A. Smith, of Roane county, W. Va, has been found guilty by a jury in the Webster Circuit Court for accepting a bribe from Guy B. Biddinger, a detective, during the last session of the state legislature to influence his vote on the pending election for United States Senator. He was taken immediately into the custody of the sheriff and spent the night in the county jail. The penalty is from five to ten years in the penitentiary.

Miss Mignon Hopkins, the daughter of a well-to-do Brooklyn attorney now dead, has entered suit in Philadelphia against Gov. Wm. Sulzer of New York, for breach of promise. Miss Hopkins, who is one of three sisters, stipulates the date of her engagement to the Governor, and in her claim says that she has endearing letters from him to show that he intended to make her his bride, and that he jilted her and married a Philadelphia woman in Atlantic City, on January 8, 1908. Miss Hopkins is about 28 years old.

St. Louis and the surrounding countries was flooded in many localities, families were driven fron their homes, street car traffic was interferred with and completely stopped for the time being, and thousands of dollars of damage done during a cloudburst yesterday. The rain, accompanied by a wind, which developed a velocity of forty miles an hour, choked the sewer system of the city to such an extent that neighbornig areas was flooded with as much as five feet of water. During the downpour the heat was intense.

The hot wave was broken throughout the middle west yesterday. General rains fell throughout Oklahoma, Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska. Scattering showers fell in Illinois. Temperatures were very much lower in the entire Mississippi Valley. In Chicago there were twenty-five adult deaths and forty-two prostrations. The toll of the four days' heat wave has been eighty-three adult deaths and over 500 prostrations. During the same period 85 babies have died and hundreds have been made ill. In the stockyards hundreds of animals have died from the heat.

Now that three women have appeared on New York roof-garden wearing trousers, why can't the men appear in low neck and short sleeves while the heated term lasts.

HEARINGS ON LOVETT'S CHARGES

Broker Lamar Takes Stand Before Senate Lobby Committee.

OTHERS TO APPEAR.

House Members Ready to Stir up Mulhall Charges in Today's Session—Sensations Expected.

Washington July 2.—David Lamar, known as a "Wall street insider," took the stand this morning shortly after the Senate lobby committee began its hearing, to reply to the imputations against him in connection with Lovett's charges that Edward Lauterbach engaged in a scheme to force the Union Pacific to retain him as counsel in connection with the Union Pacific reorganization.

Mr. Lamar appeared voluntarily and told the committee that it was his purpose to give a complete statement of all the facts he knew with respect to the matter.

While Mr. Lamar was testifying Louis Cass Ledyard, Maxwell Evarts and Paul D. Cravath prominent attorneys of New York, who have also been drawn into the Lovett charges, were intent listeners.

At the outset of the hearing, Congressman Calder, of New York, made a brief statement with respect to the Mulhall charges. He denied ever having known Mulhall or having had any relations with him, and demanded that the committee make a complete investigation of Mulhall to ascertain what basis there was for dragging in his name.

These developments are expected to reach to the general phase of the lobby inquiry as well as to the sensation Mulhall charges are constantly assuming a more sensational aspect.

With the senate lobby committee probing into the mysterious attempt to fleece Wall Street and trying to hurry through the sugar and wool lobby inquiries, and with house members prepared to stir up the Mullhall charges in the session of the house today, it is expected there will be further illumination of the needless operations of the insidious ones before night.

DISCONTENT AT NAVY YARD.

Some Employees Receive Increases and Others are Cut Down.

Two hundred and forty thousand dollars was appropriated during the last session of Congress for a raise of 10 per cent in the wages of every employe in the Washington yard.

Leaders of Columbia Lodge International Association of Machinists, last night declared the appropriation had been doled out under the so-called Taylor system, and that some men had been actually reduced, others received no increases, and still others have been granted increases ranging from 18 to 32 per cent. A meeting of the lodge had been called for tonight to consider the holding of a mass meeting with a view to formulating a plan by which a universal increase of 10 per cent. may be gained.

It is stated that the supervisors of the various departments had received the largest raises, in some instances amounting to 32 per cent. Leaders of the local lodge claim the apportionment as made is in violation of the law and place the blame on Commissioner Jones.

They maintain that until yesterday there were only five classes of machinists at the navy yard, while under the new order of things there are at least twenty classes. They also claim a number of old employes have received reductions, while several "still older" men received increases. They employes declare they have a rightful grievance and are willing to air it in the open. The meeting tonight will not be an executive session.

LONG-DELAYED LETTER.

Mailed May 30, 1861, Arrives at Destination May 30, 1913.

A letter written at Fort Washington, Md., May 30, 1861, by Henry C. Russell, of Pottsville, Pa., a civil war soldier, reached his widow in Pottsville, on the 14th ultimo through the regular channels of the United States mail. The leter had been entrusted to a comrade, M. E. Richards, of Pottstown, Pa., and was never sent. Recently Richards died and the letter sealed and stamped, was found among some old papers. It was posted and arrived June 14. Russell died about five years ago.

The letter contained what the writer said was a piece of the shirt of Colonel Ellsworth, of the New York Fire Zouaves, when he was shot and killed, May 24th, 1861, by James T. Jackson, when he hauled down the Confederate flag from the Marshall House, in Alexandria. The letter is in an excellent state of preservation.

There were doubtless more relics sent from the Marshall House to various places in the United States after the dual tragedy at that place than would fill a government wagon.

A piece of oilcloth upon which Ellsworth fell after having been shot by Jackson was cut up into small strips and forwarded to editors and others over a large portion of the country. The flagstaff upon which the Confederate flag floated was also converted into small pieces and sent broadcast. Later the stairs and the railing were split into small pieces and held as relics.

WEST END COMPLAINTS.

Bicyclists Take Possession of Sidewalks.

People residing in West End are loud in their protests against the action of certain men and boys who use bicycles and motorcycles and strangely imagine people have no rights they are bound to respect. They run their machines night and day upon the narrow sidewalks of that suburb, often crowding women and children off and into the roads. The victims of this annoyance earnesty hope Constable Payne or some other law officer of Fairfax county will come along and make examples of some of those guilty of the practice.

While the rollerskating law in Alexandria seems to be generally obeyed, it is a common thing to see youths rushing along on wheels on sidewalks. This is of course, contrary to law, and the offenders could be arrested and fined.

RELIEF PROMISED.

Mercury is Scheduled to Drop During Night.

Alexandria by tonight should have an appreciable decline in temperature, according to the predictions of the weather bureau today. The heat wave in the middle west is broken today, and the temperatures are considerably lower in New England and New York, too, are feleing the effects of the coo lwave, and it will soon be upon this neighborhood. The bureau feels certain that the drop in the mercury will be quite noticeable.

Manipulators Again Indicted.

New York July 2.—New indictments were returned by the Federal grand jury against Wm. P. Brown, and Frank B. Haynes, of New Orleans; Eugene G. Scales, of Texas, and Col. Robert M. Thompson, of New York, and Morris H. Rothschild, of New York, and Mississippi, for criminal violation of the Sherman anti-trust law in connection with the corner in cotton manipulated by them in crop years of 1909 and 1910.

While James A. Patton ,of Chicago, and Charles A. Kettle are mentioned as parties to the alleged conspiracy they are not named as defendants in the new indictments.

In the men's grill room of the Bellevue-Stratford hotel, of Philadelphia, at noon, fifteen tables were occupied by parties of lawyers, business men and politicians. Every man had his coat off.

Allison L. Adams, of New York, a Progressive member of the fusion committee from Brooklyn, announced that he would present the name of Governor Sulzer to the committee on candidates of the fusionists as the nominee for mayor.

CONSOLIDATION OF CUSTOM HOUSE

G. A. Nowland Deputy Collector and Inspector of Washington.

BEGINS WORK TODAY.

Alexandria Office Merged With That of Baltimore—Collectorships Abolished by Change.

Geo. A. Nowland, who has been deputy collector and inspector of U. S. customs for the port of Alexandria, for the past sixteen years ,was today sworn in as Deputy Collector and Inspector of the port of Washington, D. C.

Dating from April 1 1898, Mr. Nowland served two terms under Marshall L. King, as deputy collecter of this port, following which he served two terms under Lewis McK. Bell, as deputy collector.

Under the reorganiation of the customs service Congress has abolished a large number of collectorships and consolidated the offices. The Alexandria office has been merged with and placed in charge of the Baltimore custom office of which Wm. F. Stone is collector.

Mr. Nowland was also custodian of the Alexandria postoffice building of which the Custom Office is located. He will serve as custodian until relieved of his work. No one has been designated to take his position.

The Treasury Department has made no announcement as yet regarding who will be the successor to Mr. Nowland as deputy collector of the port, nor is it known what disposition will be made of the office. It is probable that the secretary of the treasury will reduce the salary paid the deputy in charge of this office before appointing a successor to Mr. Nowland as is in his power to do so.

At one time the port of Alexandria transacted more business than the port of New ork. At present, however, the chief imports are salt, plaster, rock and crude bone, while the experts are chiefly beer, which goes to the West Indies.

Our coastwise imports are very large but as the government gets no revenue from coastal trade, it does not enter into the lists of imports of this port on which money is collected for duty.

MURDERS HIS YOUNG WIFE.

St. Mary's County, Md., Man Cuts Woman's Throat

Leonardtown, Md., July 2.—On a lonely road near River Spring, while on her way to testify against her husband's father, Mrs. Anne Mattingly Owens, 25 years old was murdered Monday night by her husband, Benson Owens, an oysterman, who surrendered himself to Deputy Sheriff Gets, of this place, and was held here this afternoon b ya coroner's jury, accused of having killed his wife. He freely admitted that he committed the crime, and it is believed here that he did so because his wife refused to withdraw charge of assault and battery she had lodged against his father.

The murder is supposed tobe the outcome of a quarrel several days ago, when Frank Owens, the accused man's father, struck his daughter-in-law. She went to River Spring and swore out a warrant, charging him with assault and battery, and he was arrested.

Deaths From Heat

New York, July 2.—Following the hottest night of the summer, during which thousands sought the beaches for relief, New York again sweltered today in a torrid temperature. Two deaths and sixty prostrations have so far been reported as a result of the heat. In the tenement districts the heat victims slept on fire escapes and in the streets last night but found little relief.

POLICE PUZZLED OVER MURDER

VICTIM OF ASSAULT.

Head Nearly Severed From Body—Clothing Torn and Disarranged and Head Matted With Blood.

Chicago, July 2.—The body of a comely, well-dressed woman, with her head almost severed from the trunk, was found early today on a loading platform in the rear of the John M. Smythe Company installment house, in West Madison street.

The woman evidently had been the victim of an assault. Her clothing was badly torn and disarranged. Her hair streamed down her back, matted with blood. There were bloody finger prints on the walls of the building, drops of blood upon the steps leading to the platform, and evidences of a severe struggle.

The police found nothing to identify the murdered victim. She was dressed in a dark blue tailored suit, wore black shoes and silk stockings, but no hat. The body is that of a woman of about forty-five years.

The Smythe store is near the Northwestern station. The police theory is that the woman may have been a traveler passing through Chicago; that she strolled away from the depot last night for a breath of air while waiting for a train; was attacked as she passed the alley leading to the rear of the building, dragged to the loading platform, and murdered.

A keen-edged pocket knife smeared with blood gave the police their only clue. Search was made today through lodging houses along West Madison street for the owner of the knife.

Reversible Rail.

Fargo, N. D., July 2.—Friends of Peter Olsen, a life-term prisoner in the State Penitentiary today laid plans to secure his pardon. Since being sent to prison years ago, Olsen has invented a reversible steel rail which it is claimed, will mean an enormous decrease in the number of accidents caused by broken rails.

Former Warden Hellstrom saw the value of Olsen's idea and promoted company which will immediately begin manufacturing the new rail. Olse has been given stock in the company and the proceeds are being turned over to his family. It is alleged that the evidence upon which Olsen was convicted was entirely circumstantial.

PREPARING FOR LABOR DAY

Alexandria Trades Council Will Appropriately Observe Occasion.

A committee of six has been appointed by the Alexandria Trades Council to arrange for a celebration of some character on Labor Day. This committee will make its report at a meeting which will be held next month. It is expected that the affair will take the form of athletic events and other sports in the forenoon, with speaking by a number of labor leaders in the afternoon. This organization annually holds a celebration of some character.

The Trades Council has elected the following officers to serve for the ensuing year: J. W. Collins, president; Orlando Studds, vice president; Thos. Fones, recording secretary; John T. Harrison, financial secretary and treasurer; C. A. Howard, sergeant-at-arms, and Frank Deeton, doorkeeper.

The Mohave Desert, near San Berdardino, Cal., has gone dry. For the first time in its history the desert is minus its saloons, which, like oasis, dotted the sandy stretch for a distance of 200 miles.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION.

FEARED TO FACE WIFE.

Philadelphia, Pa., July 2.—Asked in the Camden police court yesterday why he had planned to end his life by jumping overboard, Frank Parks, 42 years old, a confectioner of Williamstown, said he would rather die than face his wife with a "beer breath." He told the court that his wife is greatly opposed to intoxicants.

While in this city making purchases, Parks said he met friends. They had several glasses of beer. After they had separated he said, he began to think what an unpleasant reception he would get from his wife if she got a whiff of the beer upon his return home. If he used lemon or peppermint to stifle the odor, he declared, Mrs. Parks would make the discovery anyhow, and he decided not to run any risk.

On the ferryboat Cape May, Deckhand Robert Dolson overheard Parks say as he walked toward the guard rail: "I might as well end it all." The deckhand sent the man to the city jail. Parks was discharged from custody later in the day.

LIGHTNING STRIKES HOUSE.

Monticello, N. Y., July 2. — A freakish bolt of lightning today, during the year's most severe storm here practically destroyed the home of David Bennett. The five members of the family were in the room most badly damaged and their escape from death was most miraculous. Mrs. Bennett and one child were struck by wood fragments and the others suffered from electrical shock, but none of their injuries were serious.

Every room in the house was wrecked, walls being torn out, doors and window casings hurled through the weather boarding, furniture broken and the kitchen range overturned.

TO PURCHASE LANDS.

Washington, July 2.—Nearly 80,000 acres of land at the head waters of the James and Shenandoah rivers have been approved for purchase by the National Forest Reservation Commission. The commission also approved 3, 340 acres near the famous Virginia Natural Bridge, 10,437 acres in the White Top Mountain region near the Junction of Virginia, North Carolina and Tennessee, and 20,587 acres at the head of the Monongahela river, upon the Ohio watershed.

The four areas approved made up the largest set of purchases passed upon at any one time by the commission. They aggregate 113,909 acres, and bring the total of all the national forests in the East up to 713,415 acres.

The White Top area consists of six tracts aggregating 10,437 acres, and affects the watershed of the Holston river, which in turn flows into the Tennessee.

The Natural Bridge area involves three tracts, the largest containing 2,676 acres. This is well timbered and close to the Glenwood estate, already acquired. The highest price paid is $7.50 an acre, with an average of $6.64.

Forest protection on the James and Shenandoah watersheds, according to the experts, may be expected to benefit the navigability of the Potomac and James rivers. Six tracts, aggregating 79,464 acres, are recommended for purchase, the first to be acquired in this area. The lands are in part cut over, in part so badly burned that they have borne no merchandise timber within the past generation.

In a Common Pleas Court decision in Dayton, Ohio, yesterday Judge A. C. Risinger, of Eaton O., allowed a perpetual injunction order restraining the negro organization known as the Improved Benevolent and Proective Order of Elks of the World from making further use of the name of "Elks" or any of the designated or emblematic possessions of the white B. P. O. E., in the State of Ohio. The Elks have a membership of 40,000 in the United States and 22,500 in the State of Ohio.

FACES SERIOUS CHARGE.

Norfolk, Va., July 2.—Charged with having committed an assault upon his seventeen-year-old stenographer, Miss Corinne Hirsh, daughter of A. Hirsh, of Portsmouth, Robert Sommers, a real estate man, was arrested late yesterday afternoon.

The warrant was sworn out by the girl's father before Justice J. O. Pitt. It is alleged that the assault occurred yesterday morning shortly before noon in Sommer's office in Bermuda street. Mr. Hirsh says that his daughter came home crying and that upon being questioned she told that Sommers, her employer, had mistreated her.

Immediately after the warrant was procured by the girls father, Detective Cruett was sent to arrest Sommers but the latter had left the city.

In the meantime Detective Ctruett was detailed to watch Sommer's office. Shortly after 3 o'clock Sommers returned to his office and was arrested. Sommers is a German and speaks but little English.

FALLS SIXTY FEET.

Roanoke, Va., July 2.—William Byrd, about twenty-two years old, employed by the Virginia and Tennessee Telephone Company, an assistant to the material clerk in the Roanoke offices, is at the Jefferson Hospital with the bones of both legs and feet badly shattered, and probably serious injury to the spine, as the result of a sixty-foot fall from the top of the telephone building at 10:15 o'clock this morning. It is said at the hospital that Byrd's condition is grave, and it will be three or four days before the full extent of his injuries can be ascertained.

DENIED INCREASE.

John Armstrong Chaloner Cannot Have More Cash.

New York, July 2.—Supreme Justice Geigerich has refused the appiication of John Armstrong Chaloner for an increase of his annual allowance to $33,000 so that he could publish his latest work, "The Three Little Flies," and if the author of "Whose Loony Now? wishes to see volume in print he will have to economize an dpay the publishers out the paltry $17,000 he now receives yearly.

In his dicision Justice Giergerich does not pass upon the poetical qualities of the work in question, but simply declares that Chaloner's reasons for wanting his allowance increased "does not appeal to me at all." Chaloner is held sane by Virginia courts and insane by New York courts.

Big Stone Gap, Va., July 2.—Two young sons of R. D. Baker, of this place, were seining for fish in the Carding Mill dam yesterday afternoon, when Victor, the youngest, stepped into deep water and hampered by his clothes and heavy shoes, was unable to swim. He was rapidly drowning, when the cries of his brother Carl, were heard by Mrs. Hart Parsons, who was at the house of Mrs. Gilley, her grandmother, about 100 yards from the mill pond. She rushed swiftly to the rescue, and, although unable to swim herself, without a moment's hesitation rushed in the water,seized the boy and succeeded in regaining the bank with him.

Quit "get-rich-quick Speculation

How many times have you said or your friends said: "I cannot, because I HAVE NOT GOT THE MONEY?" How many good business chances have had to be passed up because you did not have the money? "Get-Rich-Quick" speculation is the worse thing a man can do with his money. If the enterprise into which some smooth stranger asks you toput your money were such a good one he would keep it—not sell it to you.

The Truth About Electric Cooking

For large families where the average domestic help is employed and a large amount of cooking done, Electric Cooking will be found more expensive, and in most cases not advisable.

In small families, where no help is employed, and where nice equipment is desired, Electric cooking will be found many times more convenient, more certain in results and safer in operation—as well as reasonable in cost.

In every family a few utensils for early breakfast emergency and special uses —and for cheering up cold meals with a warm dish or two—is highly advisable from every standpoint, including that of economy.

LEGAL RIGHTS OF NEWSPAPERS.

A newspaper has a legal right to expose a business firm's methods of doing business, provided the motives of its publishers "are open to the belief that they are in good faith exposing those who are over-reaching the simple and abusing the confidence of the credulous." This was the substance of an opinion handed down yesterday by Judge Hand in the federal court in New York, denying a motion made by the E. A. Strout Farm Agency for an injunction restraining the Rural Publishing Company from publishing threas to expose the plaintiff's business methods and from writing letters to the firm's customers.

"While editors are not exempt from the common motives of other men," wrote Judge Hand, "they may and in this case they do, entertain a general desire to help their readers and expose such as may practice upon their credulity. That is a very admirable purpose in a newspaper. The refusal of the plaintiff's advertising long before this controversy became acute is a corroboration of that motive."

The above decision is of far-reaching importance, and should prove a hint to many who are ready to fly up in arms at newspapers when they publish articles intended for the public good. Every publisher has had at times much with which to contend when, following the instincts of duty, they have found it necessary to put the public on its guard against questionable enterprises.

The Gazette could mention a number of cases which have occurred in Alexandria during the past half a century when articles have appeared which have brought forth threats of suits for libel or damages. Sometimes articles which have caused trouble were not published until the officers of the law got upon the track upon suspects and officialy proclaimed certain frauds.

On one occasion a young woman living near Alexandria made a serious charge to the authorities against a man. The Gazette copied the item from a cotemporary, and yet, strangely, the accused party instituted suit against this paper for libel. The plaintiff, however, had wisdom enough to withdraw it before it was called in court.

THE PENALTY OF GREATNESS.

Today is the thirty-second anniversary of the assassination of President James A. Garfield in the Sixth street depot in Washington. The murderer, Charles Guiteau, who, it is believed, feigned irresponsibility in order to escape the penalty of the crime, was hanged the next year.

This foul murder brings many reminiscenses to the mind, especially the scenes at the trial of Guiteau. The accused attempted to run the court, and became so annoying at times that the advisability of confining him outside the room was considered.

Twenty years before Abraham Lincoln, who had but entered upon his second term as President, was shot and killed by John Wilkes Boothe, and a score of years after Garfield had been murdered another President of the United States, William McKinley, fell at the hands of an anarchist named Czolgost in Buffalo.

Regicide has startled the world at times ever since government was established, and the history of the planet contains many gruesome chapters concerning the assassination of rulers.

Times are said to change and men change with them, but the desire on the part of some to slay rulers on general principles is still manifest. During the past few years brutal murders of kings have appalled all right-thinking people The king and crown prince of Portugal were compelled to pay the price of greatness, as was King George of Greece a short time ago.

Kings are compelled to travel almost incignito, and trains bearing royalty are preceded by pilot locomotives and often lights in the cars bearing sovereigns are extinguished in order to make it appear that they are frieght trains that they may escape dynamite fiends.

Grass widow is hardly the proper term. They are so seldom green.

A woman's jury has been selected to try a woman prisoner in San Francisco. We can't help but feel a little sympathy for that defendant.

It will be right dangerous to work in the post-office these days. The firecrackers are traveling by parcel post.

The trouble with Bulgaria is that the Turkish war didn't last quite long enough to knock the chip off her shoulder.

A Philadelphia girl is suing the governor of New York for breach of promise. He is bound to have a lot of sympathy from those who have experienced the same sort of thing and from those who get chilled to the backbone whenever they think of their narrow escapes.

MOTHER HEARS OF TRAGEDY.

Family of Tragedy's Victim Believes Jones Insane.

Bristol, Va., July 2.—Mrs. L. V. Rice, the aged mother of Edna Rice Jones, who was shot to death yesterda ymorning in Norfolk by her husband, Carlos B. Jones, is prostrated. The first news of the tragedy came in the form of a telegram from the Norfolk Steam Laundry, informing the mother that her daughter had been shot to death by Jones.

Members of the Rice family state that Jones wrote a letter last week offering to pay Mrs. Rice a snug sum if she would induce her daughter to return and live with him. The mother paid no attention to the letter. The family think that Jones is insane. His wife has been suing for divorce and he has been urging her family here to do something to induce her to return to him.

Jones is a native of Kentucky. He was married to Edna Rice in Bristol, Va., several years ago.

Boston, July 2.—Mayor Fitgerald announces that women police selected from various religious and civic organizations, wil lbe detailed by him to visit the most exclusive hotels of the city—"i nplain clothes"—to investigate what he claims are disgraceful conditions as regards the dancing of the tango and the chicken flip, the dance originated by Eleanor Sears and elaborated by the Back Bay social set.

Hamburg.— The German battleship Derflinger finally was launched, after defying three separate attempts to get her off the ways.

The special election of Camden, N J, on the question of the adoption of the commission form of government resulted in the defeat of the plan by a majority of 499,531.

The two-cent passenger fare of St. Louis went into effect on several Missouri railroads.

Topeka, Kas.—The Kansas state banks showed the best condition ever experienced at this time with deposits of $11,912,000.

CHURCHES IN KANSAS EMPTY.

Farmers Go Scouting Around in Their Automobiles on Their Rest Day.

Manhattan, Kan., July 2.—What is to become of the 1,200 country churches in Kansas, abandoned and deserted because of the lack of interest in church work? Rural pastors, educators and teachers will try to answer this question at a four days' conference, which will begin here July 21.

Prof. E. L. Holton, head of the rural and vocational education department at the state agricultural college, who issued the call for the conference, says motor cars have brought another problem for the church. Distance now is such a small item that the farmer with an automobile is attempted to leave the little church in the country and take his family to a larger house of worship in town, where there is a pipe organ and a choir, and where the pews are a little more comfortable.

RICH EVENING CLOAKS WORN

Chasuble Design Considered Very Smart, Though Those With Trains Have a Following.

The chasuble coat, subjected to adaptations and constricting bands below the waist, is very smart. So also is the cope-shaped shoulder wrap of plain fur, which can be worn over the evening cloak and retained when the cloak is left. A delightful evening wrap follows rather the shape of the cardinal's robe and is carried out in chiffon velvet. The wide, plain shoulders are very effective.

Trained evening cloaks are coming in, another instance of the impracticable way in which most fashions are designed. A cloak should never touch the ground anywhere, and when it is designed for evening wear, and is therefore likely to have a long gown beneath it which has to be held up on leaving theaters and restaurants, it ought also to be so arranged that the fulness of the skirt can be brought round in the land to the front, where the cloak opens.

Therefore, a coat which fastens all the way down the front and trails behind violates two of the most important rules which ought to regulate the make of that particular garment. But fashion has not much to do with rules.

WHITE HANDBAGS TO REMAIN

With Costumes of the Same Color They Are as Popular as They Are Ornamental.

White handbags with white costumes are still the correct thing, but they are not of the same materials as were those carried with the midsummer lingerie frock, and they are vastly more ornamental. They also are more expensive, unless you have the time and the skill to make one for yourself of silk and beading. The handsomest bags, whether of flat envelope, round or square shape, mounted on silver or white composition frames, are of bengaline incrusted with a design done in crystal or pearl beads and finished with bead fringe and silk cordage handles. Some of the bags do not show any of their silk foundation, that being concealed by a background of clear crystal beads, against which is worked a design in pearl beads.

Really stunning and not expensive (if home made) are the handbags of heavy corded white silk elaborated with Berlin cut work. These are fringed heavily knotted, scallop edged on the flap and suspended from the wrist by a long and heavy cordage in silk.

SHOWN IN ODD ARRANGEMENT

Ostrich feathers are being disposed in many ways, more or less unusual, on certain of the newest hats. Sometimes they curve out quite suddenly from under the brim on one side, and in other instances they circle the crown, and then stretch out beyond the coiffure for quite a long distance at the back.

Yet another variety of chapeau is arranged with a soft bent crown in chiffon velvet, a broad brim of brocade with raised designs in plush on a crepe de chine ground, and one long ostrich feather standing perfectly erect in front. These hats, with full velvet crowns and brims or brocade look particularly smart when they are chosen in black and trimmed with ostrich feathers in some vivid shade of orange, emerald green or cerise.

DRESS FOR SMALL GIRL

A soft cashmere of fine cloth is needed for our little model, which has the skirt made with an apron tunic at back and front, braided or trimmed with embroidered galloon at the edges. The waist-band is of the same, and it is also used to form the square at neck; the sleeves are set into the armholes under wrapped seams; cuffs of the material are arranged to turn up.

Materials required: 2¼ yards 44 inches wide, 3½ yards galloon.

1250 MEN OUT.

Closes Down Plant to Get Even on Strike.

St. Louis, Mo., July 2.—The Pittsburg Plate Glass Company's plant at Crystal City, Mo., the biggest of its kind in the world, has closed in retaliation for the strike of 600 men a week ago. Twelve hundred and fifty men have been thrown out of employment.

The men walked out because the company ignored a recently enacted law prohibiting glass employes from working more than eight hours at a shift. The company contends that the law is discriminatory and threatens to ignore it or close the plant permanently. The 600 strikers have changed their attitude and are anxious to go back to work.

Superintendent Taylor is at the company's headquarters in Pittsburg conferring with officers as to what policy to puursue. It is believed the plant will be reopened.

Labor Union Secretary is Arrested.

Paris, July 2.—George Yvetote, secretary of the General Confederation of Labor, was arrested today charged with inciting soldiers to disobedience and desertion. Eighteen officials and former officials of the confederation were arrested yesterday. Following the mutiny of several regiments of soldiers as a protest against the three-year army service bill before the chamber. Republican deputies charged that the labor organization was responsible.

Police raided the confederation headquarters, seizing documents and the arrests of the officers followed.

Awarded Damages.

New York, July 2.—H. Schwartz of 188 East 119th street, obtained a verdict for $5,000 from a sheriff's jury yesterday against David B. Bluestein, a druggist, who, Schwartz alleges, made an error in filing a prescription which cost him the sight of an eye.

Schwartz explained that Dr. Irving Turck gave him a prescription for an eye wash which he took to Bluestein to have filled. After using it he lost the sight of his eye. Investigation showed that the druggist had put nitrate of silver in the wash instead of another drug called for by the prescription.

FORTY WOMEN ARE SUICIDES.

Driven to Death by Brutalities of Victorious Rebels in Mexico.

Mexico City, July 2.—Forty women residents, most of them of the better class, have committed suicide in the city of Durago since its occupation last week by the rebels after a long siege, according to a private letter received here from that city. The women, it says, became desperate as the result of their treatment by the victorious rebels.

Consular advices sa ythat the rebles who entered Durago conducted themselves like bandits, burning a large part of the business section of the city after looting it and joining in the wildest excesses. The report says that foreign flags were not respected.

A few American citizens were wounded in the fighting, while one Englishman was killed, according to these reports.

Private advices from other sources say that a group of German women in Durango were forced to submit to indignities from the rebel adherents.

The Mexican government is preparin ga column of troops to march to the relief of the city, but many days must pass before its arrival there.

Fate of Miss Flynn.

Paterson, N. J., July 2.—The fate of Elizabeth Gurley Flynn, the Industrial Workers of the World strike leadr, who is on trial for inciting the sil kmill workers here to riot probably will be known this afternoon. Attorney on both sides presented their arguments to the jury this morning.

Counsel for Miss Flynn, who has the defendant on the stand for forty-five minutes yesterday, beieve her testimony marked the climax of the trial, an dthe prosecution was equally confident of conviction.

In her testimony Miss Flynn declared she urged the strikers to be peaceful, and at no time advocated violence.

While flying a kite from the roof of a three story tenement in Newark, N. J., at 37 Jones street, Andrew Rosenlatt, nine years old, fell down an air shaft and was almost instantly killed.

Camden, N. J., July 2.—At 8 o'clock this morning the thermonteer registered 91. One death was reported. Brigel Leady, sixty succumbing to the intense heat.

HELD FOR MURDER.

Man and Woman Charged With Causing Death of Wm. Wakefield.

Bristol, Vt., July 2.—Mrs. Bessie Wakefield, aged 24, and James Plow, 24, were arrested yesterday, charged with the death of Mrs. Wakefield's husband, William, following the confession by Mrs. Wakefield that she had planned with Plew to get rid of her husband and that Plew had killed him.

The body of Wakefield was found last Monday in the woods near Cheshire. He had been shot twice through the back of the head and stabbed through the heart with his own knife. Mrs. Wakefield had reported to the police that her husband was missing the day previous.

Mrs. Wakefield confessed yesterday that Plew came to her home on Sunday, and together they talked over the best way to get rid of Wakefield who had become jealous of the other man's attentions to Mrs. Wakefield. Plew told Mrs. Wakefield that he had partially chloroformed Wakefield, walked him through the woods, and then shot him twice and stabbed him with the knife.

TOWN DARKENED BY SNAKE.

Lights Go Out When It Climbs Pole And Short-Circuits Wires.

Mullins, S. C., July 2.—A green snake 20 inches long threw the town of Mullins into darkness Sunday night Electric lights in stores and residences suddenly went out and did not come back. The electric light company was unable to discover the cause of the trouble until yesterday morning, when linemen found the snake tangled in the wires.

The reptile had crawled to the top of a pole, and coming in contact with the wires formed a short circuit and cut off the current. The snake was electrocuted.

FALLS TO DEATH.

Workman on Adelphi Hotel, Takes Fatal Plunge.

Philadelphia, Pa., July 2.—Frederick Gault, 40 years old, was killed yesterday, when he fell from the fourteenth floor to the basement of the New Adelphi Hotel, which is in course of erection at Thirteenth and Chestnut streets. Gaul, who was a foreman carpenter, employed by Doak and Company, the contractor on the operation, was changing a pully block in a vent shaft extending the height of the building. Either vertigo or a slip of the foot caused him to lose his balance and he fell to the bottom.

"He won't allow me to pray in the house. When I start to say grace before meals he begins to swear and when I go into the parlor to say my prayers he follows me in and prevents me." This was part of the testimony given by Mrs. Margaret Fisk in a divorce suit which is attracting much attention in Pontiac, Mich. Henry Fisk started suing for divorce on the ground of desertion and cruetly and Mrs. Fisk filed a cross bill. They were married in 1906, each having been married before and having grown children. Mrs. Fisk is a Free Methodist. Mrs. Fisk also asks that he be compelled to repay $850 which she says she has loaned him at different times since their marriage.

VALUABLE ADVICE.

Alexandria Citizens Should Profit by The Following Statement.

Doan's Kidney Pills were used by this Alexandria resident.

The merit was shown—the story told.

Now comes further evidence.

The testimony is confirmed.

The remedy was tested—the results lasted .

Could Alexandria residents demand stronger proof?

It's Alexandria testimony. It can be investigated.

Miss Harriett Johnson, 207 Queen street, Alexandria, Va., says: "I have had no symptoms of kidney complaint during the past four years of since Doan's Kidney Pills cured me. I willing repeat the testimony at the time my cure was made. For two years I had a lot of trouble with my back. As long as I kept still, I got along all right, but as soon as I began to work, I was bothered terribly by backache. A neighbor gave me a box of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from Leadbeater & Co.'s drug store and they cured me. I would advise any kidney sufferer to use Doan's Kidney Pills."

NEAR DEATH BY SMOTHERING

But Husband, With Aid of Cardui, Effects Her Deliverance.

Draper, N C.—Mrs. Helen Dalton, of this place, says: "I suffered for years, with pains in my left side, and would often almost smother to death.

Medicines patched me up for awhile but then I would get worse again. Finally, my husband decided he wanted me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, so he bought me a bottle and I began using it. It did me more good than all the medicines I had taken.

I have induced many of my friends to try Cardui, and they all say they have been benefited by its use. There never has been, and never will be, a medicine to compare with Cardui. I believe it is a good medicine for all womanly troubles."

For over 50 years, Cardui has been relieving woman's sufferings and building weak women up to health and strength.

If you are a woman, give it a fair trial. It should surely help you, as it has a million others.

Get a bottle of Cardui to-day.
